

---

Ms. Ying Wei – Deputy Director-General of Accounting Regulatory Department of Ministry of Finance (the MOF). Ms. Ying Wei also serves as member and the executive vice secretary-general of Information Technology Application Committee of the MOF, the Chair of the Steering Committee the XBRL China, master student supervisor in Finance Institute, executive director of Accounting Society of China and member of SME reporting working group of the IASB.

Ms. Ying Wei graduated from Shanghai University of Finance and Economics in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in economics and graduated from Northeast University of Finance and Economics in 1997 with a master's degree in economics.

Ms. Ying Wei has been engaged in the studies of accounting theory and practice related to accounting standards setting as well as the implementation regulation in China for over 25 years. She has published over 30 papers and has achievements in study of accounting theory and practice as well as International Financial Reporting Standards. In addition, she managed several key research projects of the MOF, including Taxonomy of China Accounting Standards.