

XBRL International adds new Staff to meet Global Market Demand

XBRL International Inc. is proud to announce the addition of two new staff members: Mr. Dennis Newcomer (Practices Director) and Ms. Olga Shylava (Executive Administrator).

Mr. Newcomer joins XII as Practices Director; he comes with a broad and varied background. Dennis has over 20 years of managerial and technical experience in directing complex projects in the area of technical standardization and information technology.

Formerly he served as advisor to the Headquarters of the US Air Force and major operating commands on SGML/XML based standards, complex business information systems, business process automation technologies, security, program controls and AF policy. He received a BS degree in management/logistics from Park College (1992) and an AS engineering degree for CCAF. He has been employed with Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio - LOGTEC, Inc. as a Project/Program Manager since 1999.

Mr. Newcomer will serve as primary support to the BPB and will be responsible for coordinating the work of volunteers, staff and contractor(s) of XII that work on best practices activities. Dennis will develop processes to increase collaboration among XII members and project leaders as well as improve the quality of all work products by enforcing process and policy, and by reviewing work products for objectivity and international relevance. Dennis may be reached at dennism@xbrl.org.

Ms. Shylava has over five years of administration management experience. She received a Master's Degree in Foreign Languages and Education from Polotsk State University (2004). She speaks French and Russian languages.

Previously Ms. Shylava held the position of Operations Manager at Security Technology Group, LLC (Washington D.C., USA). There she provided international administration management through identifying target markets and guiding product development strategies. Further, her experience in the field includes work for Cooper's Management, LLC, (Moscow, Russia). In this role she provided day-to-day operations support of the Business Center including organizing conferences for multinational companies.

Olga will be responsible for liaison with senior level internal and external contacts, preparation of concise and timely agendas, minutes and action items from meetings, preparation of correspondence and reports involving technical, complex and sensitive issues, provision of guidance and assistance on organizational and company policies and administrative procedures. Olga can be reached at olgas@xbrl.org.

"I am excited to welcome these very talented staff members to XBRL International. As XBRL adoption accelerates around the globe the demands on our organization and volunteers have increased exponentially. These new staff members will improve the level of service to our members and increase the output from the organization" states Tony Fragnito, CEO.
